Welcome to the University of Glasgow

Lynsey DINWOODIE
European Exchanges Coordinator

Dr Rudi MARQUEZ
Reader in Chemistry
Scotland's largest city
Glasgow: the city

Legendary music scene: UNESCO City of Music

Free art galleries and museums, including Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum, one of Scotland’s most popular tourist attractions

Host city – Commonwealth Games 2014, international sporting events – rugby, football, and more

Best shopping outside London

Home to Scottish Opera, Orchestra, Ballet, Theatre
The gateway to Scotland and the outdoors
Why choose the University of Glasgow?

Excellence all-round

Learn from pioneering academics whose research is internationally recognised

- Ranked in the top 1% of universities in the world
- Diverse population
  - 23,000 Students from more than 120 countries
- 3rd Largest city in the UK and Scotland’s biggest
  - Renowned music scene
  - Fabulous shopping
  - A wealth of arts and cultural venues
  - Vibrant nightlife

Founded in 1451

University of Glasgow • www.glasgow.ac.uk
A global University...

Founder member of Universitas 21 - world’s leading network of research intensive universities

Partnerships with more than 200 institutions worldwide

Vibrant student and staff exchange network

Prestigious research partners from Columbia in New York to Panda Research in Chengdu, China.

University of Glasgow
www.glasgow.ac.uk
Home to famous alumni:

...since 1451
Our Colleges

- College of Arts
- College of Medical, Veterinary & Life Sciences*
- College of Science & Engineering*
- College of Social Sciences

*NOVA DOMUS subjects
35 Research active groups – All research PIs are involved in undergraduate teaching.

Organic, Biological, Inorganic and Physical Chemistry.

Interdisciplinary and international research is actively encouraged.

Current research funding over £20 million.

Close links with Industry – CASE programme.

Where do our students and postdocs end up:

Industry (UK, US, EU, Canada)
Academia (UK, EU, Americas, Australia, Japan)
Government Agencies

rudi.marquez@glasgow.ac.uk
Why students love studying in Glasgow
Glasgow Campus

- Based in the cosmopolitan West End of the city
- Compact campus with accommodation within walking distance
- Close to a fantastic range of cafés, restaurants and amenities
Fraser Building: One-stop shop for a wide range of student services including café, doctor’s surgery, careers service, International Student Advisers

Library: Open 18 hours a day with online access 24/7, 2.5 million books and journals, 12 WiFi-enabled floors
Excellent support for international students

- Students from more than 100 countries
- Dedicated International Student Advisers on hand to provide advice on non-academic matters
- Comprehensive September orientation programme
- A year-round social programme for students
Any questions?

Lynsey DINWOODIE - European Exchange Coordinator, NOVA DOMUS administrative contact

Lynsey.dinwoodie@glasgow.ac.uk
See you in Glasgow !!!